King Kalākaua 1836-91

Honolulu Harbor, 1891

Princess Kaiulani 1875-99

HALE KOA HOTEL

ON THE BEACH AT WAIKIKI

ISLAND OF OAHU/HAWAII

Hawaii's territorial years left a distinctive mark on Hawaii's unique history. The TERRITORIAL COFFEE HOUSE attempts to recreate some of the flavor of Hawaii's pre-Statehood years in its design and decor. Wallcoverings, detailed woodwork and even the white-washed lava rock wall on the Diamond Head side of the room reflect the influence and style of the early missionaries. The lampshades over each booth are replicas of lighting fixtures from the 1920's. The historic photographs displayed on the wall show people and scenes from the days before territorial annexation in 1898 and Statehood in 1959. The staff is courteous and treats you in a style reminiscent of "old Hawaiian hospitality." So relax in the Territorial Coffee House and enjoy the graciousness and spirit of a Hawaii gone forever.

WAIKIKI BEACH was once the "beach of Kings" and it's still the finest spot in the world for water sports. Make it a point to try your hand at the traditional Hawaiian sport of surfing or, for the more adventurous, try snorkeling and sailing in the blue Hawaiian waters. Equipment rentals and lessons are available right on the beach. The Hale Koa also has a freshwater swimming pool which is open daily for your enjoyment. Tennis courts located across the street from the hotel offer an opportunity for vigorous exercise at any time of the day.

Eating in style has always been a Hawaiian tradition. The restaurants at the Hale Koa fit every taste and pocket-book. One of the finest dining rooms in all Waikiki is right at your hotel — the award-winning HALE KOA ROOM. Continental dining and Sunday Champagne Brunch are at their best in a casually elegant atmosphere.

The TERRITORIAL COFFEE HOUSE is for those who prefer a hearty but moderately priced meal. You'll find it open for breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

HAPPY'S SNACK BAR is the right place for a quick meal-to-go morning, noon, or night! If you've worked up an appetite swimming in our pool, then stop by the POOL SNACK & BEVERAGE BAR located just a few steps away from the freshwater fun!

Every kind of entertainment can be found at the Hale Koa, from ancient hulas to contemporary Hawaiian sounds. THE LUAU takes you back to old Hawaii with a delightful Hawaiian feast and a thrilling Luau show.

A typical Hālau (hula school) in the 1890's.

Enjoy a sampling of the South Pacific Islands' songs and dances with TAMA'S POLYNESIAN REVUE including a delicious dinner buffet.

The "Magic in Paradise" comes alive with the TUESDAY NIGHT MAGIC SHOW. Amazing illusions and a hearty Mexican/Italian buffet make for a fun-filled and magical evening.

And don't forget — the Hale Koa Hotel has beautiful indoor and outdoor lounges where you can meet your friends and enjoy refreshing beverages.
